

Wangari Maathai Institute holds a seminar on 'Food Production and Food Security in Kavuko, Makueni' and 'Energy Security in Kenya'

Ms. Njoki, MSc. Student at Wangari Maathai Institute (WMI), presents her research findings at a seminar held by WMI, July 5 2018

Wangari Maathai Institute (WMI) holds a seminar on July 4, 2018 where two MSc. Students, Patricia Njoki Nzano and Cohen Ang’u, presented their research findings. The research topics presented included: “Increasing Kavuko Community’s appreciation of bee conservation as a food production and security strategy” and “Establishing relationships among Oil Shocks, Electricity Prices, Resilience Metrics and Electrical Energy”, by Ms. Njoki and Mr. Ang’u respectively. Ms. Njoki is a Master’s student at WMI, while Mr. Ang’u is an Msc. Student at Pan African University, Institute of Water and Energy Science (including climate change) – PAUWES.

Mr. Ang’u presents his research findings at a seminar by WMI on July 5, 2018

Brief prepared by Ms. Kong’ani and Ms. Mburu