

Wangari Maathai Institute's MSc students defend their proposals – May 3, 2018

Ms. Wamaitha Phyllis defending her MSc. research proposal

The MSc students at the Wangari Maathai Institute for Peace and Environmental Studies successfully defended their research proposals defense on May 3 2018. The research topics included; analysis of the causes of Forest Degradation amidst the Forest Laws and Policies in Kenya by Kiprono Abel, the effect of climate change on food production in Nairobi County by Gakuhi N. Lilian, the effectiveness of legal strategies in waste management; the ban of plastic bags in Kenya by Odhiambo G. Elmah, Managing Riparian areas in Nairobi County and conflicts that arise due to the different interpretations of the same by Nyaga H. Kiriimi, Citizen science and its relation to insecurity: A study of Nairobi County by Wamaitha N. Phyllis and Impacts of Proposed Isiolo Dam on the Lorian Swamp Ecosystem by Salad Jillo Tutana.