

Wangari Maathai Institute in conjunction with Tharaka Nithi County Officials conducts a situational analysis for Environmental Sustainability in Tharaka Nithi County - January 22-24, 2019

The WMI and Tharaka Nithi County Teams during the interview at Meru Herbs in Tharaka Nithi County, credit Ms. Kong'ani

The Wangari Maathai Institute for Peace and Environmental Studies in conjunction with a representative from Tharaka Nithi County successfully conducts environmental sustainability- situational analysis in the County. The objective of the collaboration is to seek solutions towards achieving sustainable livelihoods through Integrated Environmental Restoration in the County.

The institute appreciates the continued collaboration with the County and looks forth to working together towards achieving the objective.