

The Wangari Maathai Institute Co-hosts the Tribes Summit 2017- June 29, 2017

Participants' group photo after the summit 2017

The Wangari Maathai Institute for Peace and Environmental Studies in collaboration with the Tribes Summit Secretariat successfully holds the Tribes summit 2017. This forum was held at the College of Agriculture and Veterinary Sciences, Upper Kabete Campus on June 29, 2017. The Summit 2017, “All Kenyan Communities – One People,” aim was to advocate for and promote peaceful coexistence and stimulate responsible actions among the youth towards, during and after the upcoming elections. This will be followed by the ATAT (All Tribes Against Tribalism) – Peace Walk open for all on Saturday July 1, 2017 as part of the summit activities.

Prof. Henry M. Mutembei, Director, WMI, 3rd from the left and other panelists during the Tribes summit 2017