Open and Distance learning is one of the innovative program delivery method that enables reaching out to a larger number of clients both locally and globally. The Wangari Maathai Institute for Peace and Environmental Studies is committed to meeting the market demand for the ODEL program. To fulfill this, the Institute organized for the ODEL writeshop on June 28, 2017 to enable equip and enhance staff members' required skills and competencies to design and implement academic programs using this mode. The writers' training was facilitated by ODEL experts from the Kikuyu Campus lead by Dr. J.O. Odumbe.
