

From the left, Prof. H. M. Mutembei, Director, WMI, Dr. T. Thenya, Dr. J. Muthee, Dr. T. Ndiwa, Mr. B. Nyankone, MSc candidate, Prof. N. J. Muthama during Mr. Nyankone's MSc. thesis defense

The MSc. students at the Wangari Maathai Institute for Peace and Environmental Studies successfully defended their thesis on June 18, 2018. The research topics included: “Assessment of Factors Influencing Adoption and Use of Improved Cook stoves among Households of Thuti Location, Othaya, Nyeri County” by Nyankone Benson and “Assessment of the Drivers of Community Participation in Community Forest Management in Kessup Forest, Elgeyo-Marakwet County” by Rotich Sylvia.

Ms. Rotich defending her MSc. thesis